Art. 1. - INTRODUCTION

1. This Policy has been drafted in accordance with the provisions of:

- Title V, Section V, Chapter 5 of Circular 263;
- Title IV, Chapter 3 of Circular 285;
- Articles 2391 and 2391-bis of the Italian Civil Code, in the matter of interests of directors and related-party transactions;
- Consob Regulation;
- the TUB;
- the TUF;
- the Corporate Governance Code;
- art. 13 of the RPT Regulation, which forms an integral part of the Policy, available on the website of the Parent Company, for the purpose of correctly managing, in observance of the sound and prudent management principle, Transactions with Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties, as well as of preventing potential conflicts of interests concerning the relations in place with said persons. Internal controls put in place to mitigate the risks associated with said activities include the RPT Committee Regulation governing the composition and functioning rules of the same Committee, set up pursuant to the Bank of Italy Rules and Consob Regulation.

2. This Policy will be subject to review at least every three years by the Board of Directors of the Bank, also as Parent Company. The Policy is communicated to shareholders and the market by means of publication on the Bank's website.

Art. 2. - DEFINITIONS

Chief Executive Officer of the Parent Company:	the “ body with management functions ” of the Parent Company, i.e. the member of the Board of Directors of the Bank to whom ordinary management duties, namely the execution of the guidelines resolved in the exercise of the

Art. 3. - APPROVAL PROCESS

1. The approval process for the Policy is as follows:

- a) review by the RPT Committee, which issues an analytic and reasoned opinion on the overall suitability of the Policy to achieve the objectives for which it has been drawn up, as better detailed below;
- b) review by the Board of Statutory Auditors, which issues an analytic and reasoned opinion on the Policy overall suitability to achieve the objectives for which it has been drawn up, as better detailed below;
- c) investigation on the Policy compliance with the legislation in force, by the Compliance Function, which confirms compliance thereof by means of a specific report;

- d) Policy approval by the Board of Directors of the Parent Company, after having acquired the opinions under the above items;

The Policy is disclosed to the Shareholders' Meeting and the public by means of publication on the Bank's website, without prejudice to the obligation to advertise it within the annual management report, by reference to the website section where the Policy is published.

2. The Policy is kept available to the Bank of Italy and is published on the Bank's website.

Art. 4. - GOALS

1. Solutions that may be actually adopted in the matter of management of conflicts of interest shall be adequate to the Group characteristics and strategies, in compliance with the principle of proportionality, and shall prove effective in relation to the goal of compliance with the applicable regime and prevention and management of conflicts of interest.

2. The Policy aims at setting the guidelines to ensure that the organisational structure of the Group and the controls system guarantee the ongoing compliance with the prudential limits and the deliberative procedures set by the legislation referred to in the introduction.

3. To this end, the Policy governs the control processes aiming at guaranteeing the correct measurement, monitoring and management of the risks taken by the Group towards Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties, as well as verifying the correct design and actual application of internal policies, identifying the roles and responsibilities on the side of the Company's Bodies, the Control Functions and the RPT Committee.

4. In particular, the Policy aims at:

- i) identifying, in respect of the Bank's and the Group's operational characteristics and strategies, the business sectors and types of economic relationships, also other than those involving the taking of risk assets, in connection with which conflicts of interest may arise;
- ii) set risk appetite levels consistent with the strategic profile and the organisational characteristics of the Bank and the Group, also in terms of maximum size of risk assets towards Associated Persons deemed acceptable in relation to Supervisory Capital, as regards overall exposures towards all Associated Persons;
- iii) set up and govern organisational processes suitable to:
 - a) identify and register in full Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties and identify and quantify the relating transactions in every stage of the relationship;
 - b) ensure the correct measurement and management of risks taken towards the same Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties and verify the correct design and actual application of internal policies.

Art. 5. - SCOPE OF APPLICATION AND ALLOCATION OF RESPONSIBILITIES BETWEEN PARENT COMPANY AND SUBSIDIARIES

1. The Bank, as Parent Company, provides subsidiaries with the necessary guidelines to ensure consistency of the choices made, and supervises at consolidated level the risk management process of activities in conflict of interest outstanding with Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties and, verifying compliance with the reference Laws & Regulations and the application of the Group strategic lines.

2. Subsidiaries transpose the general guidelines for the management process of transactions with Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties and the related risk as issued by the Parent Company and formalized in the Policy, submitting the latter to the approval of their competent Corporate Bodies, with consequent commitment of the same subsidiaries to comply with the Policy provisions, taken into account the applicable local legal and regulatory regime.

3. Subsidiaries must promptly activate, after the approval of the competent Corporate Bodies, the necessary activities aiming at implementing the Policy. In particular, they:

- identify a reference person, with interface and coordination functions in the relations with the Parent Company and in the management of Transactions with Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties, and implement the necessary systems to monitor transactions with Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties, the list of which is made available by the Corporate Secretary Function;

- through the Corporate Secretary Function, involve, where required, the RPT Committee, for the purpose of acquiring the prior and reasoned (not binding) opinion on transactions with Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties, in compliance with the deliberative procedures provided for by the RPT Regulation;

- illustrate in the deliberative phases provided for by the RPT Regulation the information relating to Transactions with Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties, highlighting the interest of the Subsidiary in the entering into of the transaction, the economic convenience and the indication of the reasons for possible deviations, in terms of economic-contractual conditions and other profiles typical for the transaction, from standard or market ones;

- prepare internal information flows for the Parent Company, as provided for by subsequent Article 10.

Art. 6. - IDENTIFICATION OF THE CONFLICT OF INTEREST RISK

1. The conflict of interest risk is constituted by the possibility that the proximity, if any, of certain persons (Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties) to the Bank's decision making centres may compromise the objectivity and impartiality of decisions relating to transactions with the same persons, with possible distortions in the resource allocation process, Bank exposure to non-adequately measured or monitored risks, potential damages to shareholders and stakeholders. This also in order to comply with the prudential limits defined in Circular 263 with respect to Supervisory Capital.

2. In relation to its own strategies and operational characteristics, the Group identifies the business sectors and types of economic relationships – even other than those involving the taking of risk assets – in the context of which conflict of interest situations may arise, among which, without limitation: the granting of loans and financial services, fundraising transactions, provision of goods and services, including the acquisition of proprietary real estates, mergers/acquisitions and every other extraordinary transaction.

Art. 7. - DETERMINATION OF RISK APPETITE LEVELS

1. The Group, consistently with its own strategic profile and taken also into account its organisational structure (shareholding structure, legal form and operational specialisation), adopts a general strategy for managing conflicts of interest towards Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties characterized by a low risk appetite.

2. In line with the approach under the above subsection, the Company defined within the RAF low prudential limits for risk assets towards Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties for the Bank and the Group, in terms of maximum size deemed acceptable and in relation to Supervisory Capital, with reference to total exposures towards all Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties.

3. Assets towards Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties shall be kept within the limits – percentage indicators – defined in the RAF in terms of thresholds of Risk Appetite and Risk Tolerance.

4. Should the Group adopt instruments of Credit Risk Mitigation (CRM), the Board of Directors shall determine the circumstances under which the taking of new risk assets may be supported by adequate risk mitigation techniques, having regards to the amount of said assets in relation to Supervisory Capital, the frequency of transactions, the nature of the Associated Person and the Consob Related Party's 's connection with the Bank or the Group. Said risk mitigation techniques shall be conducted by persons unrelated to the Associated Persons and the Consob Related Parties.

5. The Board of Directors of the Bank is the competent body to define, approve and review the risk management policies, as well as the guidelines for their application.

In particular, in accordance with the applicable provisions of Law and Regulations, the Board of Directors of the Bank:

- while defining the overall governance and organizational structure of the Bank, ensures the clear distinction of duties and functions, as well as the prevention of conflicts of interest. Decision-making processes and the entrustment of functions to the staff are formalised and allow the univocal identification of tasks and responsibilities suitable to prevent conflicts of interest;
- establishes the management policies of the risk of conflicts of interest and the modalities through which the same is detected and assessed, and, having heard the opinion of the Board of Statutory Auditors and RPT Committee, approves the RPT Regulation (and its amendments and supplements) and this Policy, which are periodically reviewed, for the purpose of ensuring the effectiveness and validity thereof, also taken into account the evolution of the Group business;
- periodically acquires the information under article 10;
- approves – having heard the opinion of the Board of Statutory Auditors (as provided for in art. 9, subsection 2, iii))- the remedial plan proposed by the Chief Executive Officer of the Parent Company, where the exposure to Associated Persons exceeds one or more supervisory limits.

6. The Chief Executive Officer of the Parent Company sets the responsibilities of the structures and Company's Functions involved in the risk management process, so that the relating duties are clearly assigned and potential conflicts of interest are prevented. It also ensures that "relevant activities" are led by qualified staff, with adequate autonomy degree in judgement and with experiences and knowledge adequate for the duties to be discharged.

Art. 8. - MONITORING OF CONFLICT OF INTEREST RISK

1. The Bank sets up and governs organisational processes and control systems based on operational procedures for the prevention (or, where not possible, mitigation), monitoring and correct management of potential conflicts of interest that may arise in the relations with Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties.

ART. 8.1 - IDENTIFICATION AND REGISTRATION OF ASSOCIATED PERSONS AND CONSOB RELATED PARTIES - IDENTIFICATION AND QUANTIFICATION OF THE RELATING TRANSACTIONS IN EVERY PHASE OF THE RELATIONSHIP

1. Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties provide the Bank with the information necessary to allow their precise identification and that of their Connected Persons, promptly report every subsequent variation, and provide useful information for the purpose of quantifying the related transactions in every phase of the relation.

2. The Group adopted IT systems suitable to register Consob Related Parties Associated Persons as early as from the beginning of the relationship, to have updated knowledge of Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties, record the relating movements and monitor the performance and overall amount of the relating risk assets, taking also into account the updated value of risk mitigation techniques possibly assisting transactions. The system adopted ensures that the Parent Company is able to constantly verify compliance with the consolidated limit of risk assets towards Associated Persons.

3. The Bank entrusted to:

- a) the Corporate Secretary Function of the Bank, the duty to identify and register Group's Associated Persons and the Consob Related Parties in a complete manner;
- b) the B.U. Credit Risk Assessment of the Parent Company, the duty to identify the relationships outstanding between the Company counterparties, and between those and the Bank, or between the Parent Company and the other Group companies, from which the qualification of a counterparty as Consob Related Party or Associated Person may derive.

4. To this end, the B.U. Credit Risk Assessment of the Bank – also in charge of monitoring the phenomenon of economic groups for the purpose of control over large exposures – avails itself of all sources of information available, both internal and external (company's records, Risk Bureau, Financial Statements Bureau etc.), integrating and reconciling it so to achieve and maintain a complete overview of phenomena, and prepare the collection, keeping ad update modalities of information on Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties.

ART. 8.2 - MONITORING OF CORRECT MEASUREMENT AND MANAGEMENT OF RISKS TAKEN TOWARDS ASSOCIATED PERSONS

1. The Bank set up and governed control systems suitable to guarantee the correct measurement and management of risks taken towards Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties as well as to verify the correct design and actual application of the Policy and the RPT Regulation.

2. Specifically:

- i) the Risk Management Function: takes care of measuring risks underlying the relationships with Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties and verifies compliance with the limits provided for by the RPT Regulation;
- ii) the Compliance Function: verifies the existence and reliability over time of procedures and systems suitable to ensure compliance with legislative requirements and those determined by internal rules, requesting, where necessary, the amendment/supplement of processes in place. To this end it is involved in the prevention and management of conflicts of interest, both among the various activities carried out by the Group, and with reference to employees and Company Representatives;
- iii) the Internal Audit Function verifies, at least annually, compliance with internal policies and promptly reports to the Board of Statutory Auditors any anomalies. It reports to the Corporate Bodies on the Bank's and the Group's overall exposure to risks arising from transactions or other activities with Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties, and if the case, suggests reviews to internal policies and organisational and control structures deemed suitable to enhance the monitoring of said risks;
- iv) the RPT Committee carries out an assessment, support and proposal role in the matter of organisation and running of internal controls on the overall risk taking and management activity towards Associated Persons Consob and Related Parties, as well as for the general verification of the activity consistency with the strategic and managerial guidelines.

Art. 9. - RISK MITIGATION

1. The Group, in line with the low risk appetite that characterizes it, mitigated the risk of conflicts of interest by adopting a set of mitigation tools and techniques.

In particular, by adopting the RPT Regulation, the Group:

- i) defines deliberative procedures on transactions with Associated Persons and Consob Related Parties, supplementing prudential limits, in order to preserve the integrity of the decision-making process, assigning a relevant role to Independent Directors, who are members of the RPT Committee, which is involved in the pre-resolution phase, and is called to provide a reasoned opinion in the context of the resolution. Pursuant to article 4 of the Regulation of the RPT Committee, the Committee is comprised of three Independent Directors – meeting the requirements set forth under article 148-ter of the TUF and article 3 of the Corporate Governance Code – who are involved in cases of Transactions of Greater Relevance or falling under the shareholders’ meeting competence as early as from the negotiation and preliminary investigation phase, by way of receiving a complete and timely information flow, and with the right to ask for information from and express observations to the delegated bodies and the persons leading the negotiations and preliminary investigations;
- ii) applies deliberative procedures to any transaction with Consob Related Parties or Associated Persons, without prejudice to the exemptions and derogations expressly provided for in article 7.5 of the RPT Regulation;
- iii) adopts prudential limits for the taking of risk assets towards Associated Persons, in accordance with Circular no. 263. In case the aforementioned limits are exceeded, the Chief Executive Officer of the Parent Company proposes – within 45 days of the limit been exceeded – a remedial plan and submits it, having heard the Board of Statutory Auditors, to the approval of the Board of Directors of the Parent Company. Said plan is transmitted from the Corporate Secretary Function to the Bank of Italy within 20 days of the approval, together with the minutes containing the resolutions of the Company’s Bodies.

In case the exceeding of limits concerns a Bank of Italy Related Party by virtue of the interest held in the Parent Company, administrative rights associated with that interest are suspended. The Parent Company assesses legal, reputational or of conflicts of interest risks, associated with operations towards Associated Persons, where relevant for the company’s operations, in the context of the risk assessment internal process.

Art. 10. - DISCLOSURE

ART. 10.1 - INTERNAL DISCLOSURE TO CORPORATE BODIES

1. The Corporate Secretary Function provides Corporate Bodies at least on quarterly basis with a comprehensive disclosure on Transactions entered into with Associated Persons and Consob

Related Parties, and on their main features.

ART. 10.2 - DISCLOSURE OBLIGATIONS TOWARDS CONSOB

Art. 10.2.1 - Transactions of Greater Relevance

1. After the approval of a Transaction of Greater Relevance with Consob Related Parties (and, accordingly, with the exclusion of transactions with persons qualifying as Associated Persons but not Related Parties), the Bank prepares, pursuant to art. 114, subsection 5, of the TUF, the informative document in accordance with the provisions of Consob Regulation (the “Informative Document”)⁴.

2. The Informative Document is drawn up by the Compliance & AML Function with the support of the Corporate Secretary Function in accordance with Annex 4 to Consob Regulation and sets out at least the information specified therein.

3. The Bank procures that the Informative Document is made available to the public at the registered office and with the modalities provided for by Title II, Chapter I, of the Issuers Regulation (art. 65 et seq. – via SDIR and publication on the company website), within seven days of the transaction approval by the Bank’s Board of Directors or the administrative bodies of subsidiaries or, if the competent body resolves to submit a contractual proposal, from the time at which the contract, also preliminary, is entered into on the basis of the applicable regime.
